Numb. 1134

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 28. to Monday October 2. 1676.

Dantzick, Sept. 22.

FRom the Polish Camp we have Letters of the 11 inst. which say, that the Turks and Tartars being joined together, and consequently making a formidable Army, had taken Fagelnic and Czenthow, and afterwards advanced to Feslowitz, which through the cowardice or treachery of the Governor, was delivered up without the firing of one Gun; That the King of Poland had thereupon called a Council of War, to resolve what was best to be done for the opposing the Enemy, who threatned to invade the heart of the Kingdom, and that the resolution had been taken to make all the defence that was possible, and to dispose of the few Forces they have to the greatest advantage; and at the same time, that according to a former resolution, Commissioners should be sent to Sejatan Bassa, to treat of Peace.

Madrid, Sept. 23. On the 12 instant, was declared the intended Marriage of our King with the young Archduchess of Austria, the Emperors daughter, and most of that day was spent in the publick demonstrations of joy. On the 15 was celebrated a Bull Feast in the Priora, and most of the last week was employed in Compliments to their Majesties on this occasion by the Foreign Ministers, the Councils, and other Persons of Quality. On the 19 instant, their Majesties went to the Escurial, with intention to continue there several dayes. The Baron of Bergeick is preparing to begin his journey in the beginning of the next month for England, where he is to reside in quality of Envoy Extraordinary, till the arrival of the Marquis de la Fuentes, who will have the character of Ambassador Extraordinary. From Alicant of the 7th instant they write, that four of the Spanish Men of War which have lay'n so long at Cartagena, were gone to Sea, having several Companies of Foot on board, but that it was not known whither they were bound for Sicily, or for Catalonia; That the sickness was very much decreased at Cartagena, and that at present but few dyed of it. From Malaga of the 25 past, they tell us, That the Corsairs of Sally had taken a Portuguese ship belonging to Brazile, in which, besides a very considerable Lading, they took 72 persons. From Cadiz they write, That there was arrived a Vessel from Argiers, and in her a Captain of a Spanish Advice Boat, as a Passenger, who had been some time Captive in Argiers, having been taken in his Voyage home, being dispatched by the Governor of St. Domingo to bring advice hither, that 16 Men of War, supposed to be French, were arrived in those parts, and that it was apprehended their design was to intercept the New Spain Fleet.

Copenhagen, Sept. 26. Our King continues encamped with his Army not far from Helmstadt, being desirous to have a certain account of the posture of the Enemy, before he removes from thence, which will be to put his Forces into Winter-quarters; for as to Helmstadt, we are assured, that the King will not begin the Siege of it so late in the year, but rather will prepare for an early Campagne the next Summer. The Suedish Army, we are told, is likewise retired from Falkenburg on the other side of Helmstadt, where it hath lay'n encamped some time. Our Fleet will now come in very suddenly, and the Dutch Men of War will be sent home, there being no appearance of the Swedes Fleet coming to Sea this year. A Vessel arrived from Sweden brings advice, that 5000 Finlanders were arrived at Stockholme, and would in few dayes continue their march to the Army.

Hamburgh, Octob. 2. Though we formerly told you, that after the Surrender of Lochenitz, the Elector of Brandenburgh was marched with part of his Forces towards Stetin to attack it, yet we do not hear that his Electoral Highness is set down before it, endeavouring, it seems, rather to make himself Master of the place by Treaty, than by Force. Damnis in the mean time continues to be very closely pressed, and the Besiegers have begun to make use of their Bombes and Fireballs, with which they have burnt greatest part of the Town; however the Garison will not as yet hearken to any terms which the Besiegers offer in order to their surrendring the place. The 30 past, arrived here the Duke of Mecklenburg from England. Our Letters from Warsaw, give us account that the Turks and Tartars advance towards the Polish Frontiers, and that the King was gone in great haste to the Army, which lay encamped at Leopol, with intention to march immediately and to make head against those Infidels.

Strasburg, Sept. 28. The Troops which were employed in the Siege of Philipsburg, having joined the Duke of Lorrain near Offenburg, the 26 instant in the morning the Army decamped, and marched towards Brissow, that day the Cavalry passed the Rivers Kuitzig and Schutter, as the Infantry did yesterday, and this day the Army is advanced to the River Elz, and has its Head quarter at Etenheym, where the French were lodged not many dayes since; at present they lie encamped near Brisac, the Duke of Luxemburg having fortified his Bridge over the Rhine, that he may with the greater safety repass it, when he shall see it necessary. Major-General Schultz, who commands a small Body of men on the side of Friburg, does very much incommode the Enemies Foragers, of whom he takes many Prisoners, as the other day he took 100, notwithstanding they were guarded with a good Body of Horse. 'Tis reported that the Duke of Lorrain intends to fortifie Newburg above Brisac, which the French formerly burnt. The Prince of Baden Dourlach, General of the Forces of the Empire, is brought hither very much indisposed. The French continue to lay up great stores of Provisions at Schlestadt, Colmar and Hagenau, which very much contradicts what is said of their design to quit the latter.

Cologne, Octob. 2. The Troops of Lunenburgh and Munster march but slowly, not having advanced at all since our last; for the 30 past the former were then encamped between Dillenburg and Wetzlar, and the latter near Siegen in the County of Nassau, which is made an argument of their intending no action this Campagne, but only to take Winter-quarters in these parts. The young Princes of Newburg, who remained at Dusseldorp, are to follow the Duke their Father to his Territories